

Friends of Kentucky Libraries, Incorporated

NEWSLETTER

November

1968

Extra!

EXTRA!!

EXTRA!!!

The most important happening our organization has scheduled during the month of November is

ANNUAL MEETING

Friends of Kentucky Libraries
Incorporated

which all members and potential members are urged to attend. Members have received cards giving details but, as a last reminder, here they are again:

LUNCHEON

Place - Crystal Ballroom, Phoenix Hotel, Downtown Lexington

Time - Noon (EST), Thursday, November 7

Price - $3.00 including tax and tip

Speaker and Topic: Mr. Hugh Hunter, Jr., Executive Secretary
Governor's Planning Committee on Libraries.
Mr. Hunter will talk about this committee.

Deadline for receiving money for luncheon reservation - November 4
(Checks go to Mrs. Russell Houston, 2512 Brighton Drive, Louisville. 40205.

As you noticed from your invitation, the luncheon is to be given in conjunction with the Kentucky Libraries Trustees Association, as in the past. (The date of the luncheon given by the Public Library Association, to which a number of members of our organization belong, is Friday, November 8. Reservations are to be made with K.L.A.)

A short business meeting will be called after our luncheon. Place - Crystal Ball Room. Some important matters are to be taken up, including suggested changes in our by-laws and in directors.

Before and after the luncheon and meeting, opportunity will be given for members to purchase copies of "Post-Scripts to Proverbs," an illustrated booklet of verse by Mrs. George Gray, just printed. (Copies will be autographed if desired.) Price - $1.00. Proceeds will swell our now depleted scholarship fund. One hundred and fifty of the 1,000 copies have already been reserved or sold.

Report on Elva M. Willis Fund

Gifts continue to arrive for this fund, recently set up to honor Mrs. Willis, mother of Margaret Willis. The amount constantly changes but is now about $250.00.

Anyone wishing to add to this amount may send a check to our Executive Secretary, Mrs. Russell Houston, Jr. (Please state on or with the check that it is for this fund.)

- - -

Art at the Department of Libraries, Frankfort

When you visit the Department of Libraries, be sure to look around the walls to see the brilliant new framed prints which are to be circulated, later. Many paintings by both European and American artists are included. Several Ray Harm prints - all his recent work - represent art in Kentucky.

- - -

New Libraries and Additions to Existing Buildings

- Louisville - Work on the large addition to the main Library, Fourth and York, is going ahead after being held up during part of the summer.
- Corbin Open House in the new library at Corbin will be announced soon.
- Owensboro Shelving in the new library is now being installed in this new building which is just completed. Opening date will soon be given.

- - -

Extra Copies of the talk made by Bergan Evans

If you wish a copy or another copy of this sparkling talk, make your wish known at the luncheon, November 7. Leave your name with either secretary. Just now, the supply of extra copies is all gone but if there is a further demand, more will be made.

- - -

See you in Lexington.....November 7

- - -