

Friends of Kentucky Libraries,

October 1970

Incorporated

NEWSLETTER

INVITATION

Luncheon

Friends of Kentucky Libraries
Trustees of Kentucky Libraries

Place - Kentucky Hotel, Louisville --- Mezzanine

Time - Noon, October 9, 1970

Price - $4.00 including tax and gratuity

Speaker - John Ed Pearce, Editorial Writer, Courier-Journal

Topic - Conservation and the Public Libraries

Mr. Pearce, a Kentuckian by choice, beside being a writer, an author, and a Commander in the Navy Reserve, is also a speaker and an authority on conservation. We are offered a rare opportunity to hear a fine speaker.

Mr. Pearce has been widely recognized for his work on conservation. His latest award is from Freedom's Foundation, this year. He has received the Neiman Fellowship to Harvard, 1957; shared the 1967 Pulitzer Prize for promotion of soil and water conservation in Kentucky and also received the Governor's Medallion for State Conservation Programs. This last award was given to Mr. Pearce by former Governor Breathitt.

---

Note: Please make your reservation as early as possible. Today is not too soon. Please clip and return the following coupon with your check. Your ticket will be mailed to you.

---

---

COUPON

Friends of Kentucky Libraries, Inc.
Mrs. Russell Houston, Jr.
Executive Secretary
2512 Brighton Drive
Louisville, Ky. 40205

Enclosed is my check for $ _____ for which please send me _____ tickets to the Luncheon, October 9, at the Kentucky Hotel.

_____
Name

_____
Address